10.4 This MOU shall be effective from the date of execution and shall be valid for a period of one year from the effective date i. e. date of execution of MoU, unless terminated earlier. This duration can be extended further with mutual consent.

11 Waiver

11.1 The party that is entitled to the benefit hereof may waive any term or condition of this MoU at any time. Such waiver must be in writing and must be executed by an authorized officer of such party. A waiver on one occasion will not be deemed to be a waiver of the same or any other breach or non-fulfillment on a future occasion.

11.2 The MoU may be reviewed and amended every year based on need of the work and its practical implications mutually decided by both the parties.

12 Force Majeure

12.1 Neither party to this MoU shall be liable for any failure or delay on its part in performing any of its obligations under this MoU if such failure or delay shall be result of or arising out of Force Majeure conditions and, provided that the party claiming Force Majeure shall use its best efforts to avoid or remove such cause of non-performance and shall fulfill and continue performance hereunder with the utmost dispatch whenever and to the extent such cause or causes are removed.

12.2 Any extraordinary event, which cannot be controlled by the parties, shall for the purpose of this MoU, be considered as a Force Majeure event. Such events include natural calamities, acts or omissions of any college/institution or agency thereof, compliance with rules, regulations or order of any college/institution Authority, strike, lockout, unlawful acts, willful tampering of data on the portal and hardware and power failure, downtime of ISP services, virus/worms/spyware/denial of service attacks, spamming and hacking attacks. PROVIDED however, if either party claims that existence of any of the aforesaid conditions is delaying or disabling the performance by said party of its obligations under this MoU then such party shall give immediate notice by registered mail or courier to the other party of the existence of such conditions whose existence are claimed to delay or disable the performance of obligations as aforesaid.

13 Termination

13.1 The MoU can be terminated by either party giving the other party, a prior written notice of not less than three months of its intention to do so but without dishonoring any commitment entered into prior to the date of termination notice and no party shall leave its commitment unfinished which may result in tangible losses to the other party.

13.2 The MoU shall also stand terminated for any reasons such as legal processes, acts of the State or similar such exigencies beyond the normal control of the party concerned and which disable any of the parties hereto from functioning further.

13.3 The MoU may be terminated by both parties by mutual consent.

13.4 Both the parties shall honor commitments made prior to the date of notice/termination, complete the ongoing work to avoid major inconveniences or serious dislocations of the work of either party and shall settle any outstanding dues without recourse to compelling action, upon such termination.

13.5 Despite termination, the parties shall abide by the usual professional ethics and normal code of conduct to maintain the confidentiality of the information and intellectual property rights.

13.6 The Clauses of this MoU, which by nature are intended to survive termination of this MoU shall remain in effect after such termination.

14 Jurisdiction

14.1 All disputes and differences, whatsoever arising out of these presents or any part thereof and whether as to the construction thereof or otherwise shall be referred to the courts at Pune, India which shall be the courts having jurisdiction to entertain and try the same.

15 Notices

15.1 Any notices, requests and other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by hand against written acknowledgement or receipt, or sent by registered mail, or by facsimile or by email followed by a confirmation letter by registered mail, at or to each of the parties at the addresses set forth in this MoU or to its last known place of business.
